

LAGERKVIST & PARTNERS

2013-04-25: NEW MEMBERS IN ADVISORY BOARD

Lagerkvist & Partners welcomes Gunnar Strömblad and Joakim Karlsson to the Advisory Board. This implies that Lagerkvist & Partners' Advisory Board now consists of seven members. The appointment of Mr Strömblad and Mr Karlsson is in line with the objective of having representation from several important industrial sectors.

Mr Gunnar Strömblad, former Executive Vice President at Schibsted ASA, has a background in the media industry where he has held several important positions, especially within the Schibsted Group. During these years he has proved a strong track record having pursued successful projects like the launch of aftenbladet.se; Blocket and hitta.se. As CEO of Aftonbladet and later Svenska Dagbladet, he led the successful turnaround of the declining newspapers.

Mr Joakim Karlsson is Managing Partner at Nordic Capital and has worked for the company since 1998. Prior to joining Nordic Capital, Mr Karlsson worked for JP Morgan and the Swedish Embassy in Moscow, a position he got after finishing the Swedish Army Language School Program. During his years at Nordic Capital, Mr Karlsson has gained considerable experience from major corporate transactions and has been a member of several boards of directors. Currently he is member of the board of Luvata and Munters.
